ABOUT JUSTIN

Justin Barbush has been coaching, teaching and leading for 26 years. He has a strong sense of forward movement and a drive to help people discover their own potentials. Justin has learned that being content in what God provides keeps him focused on what matters and grounds him in God's truth. Justin believes that when we get this right, God guides and directs us, providing exactly what we need to keep moving forward.

Justin and his wife, Angie, live in Manheim PA, where they raised their three children. In his free time, Justin enjoys watching his kids compete in field hockey & wrestling, coaching wrestling, hunting, the outdoors, exercise, spending time with family and friends, home improvements, and helping others in need. He loves to have fun: doing life is not easy, but if you can have fun doing it, it makes it more enjoyable.
