ABOUT TOMMY

Tommy went to University of Valley Forge where he earned a degree in Pastoral Studies. He served at several different churches before joining Utility Keystone Trailer Sales as their VP of Human Resources in 2012. He enjoys public speaking and teaching.

Tommy has always strived to grow as a leader in his personal and professional development. He views humans as the greatest asset on earth and sees mentoring as a way to make the world a better place one person at a time. He is often found spending time with his family and friends, exploring wineries, traveling, enjoying city living, and enjoying the arts.
