Finance Restored – A Men of Iron Devotional

Welcome to Finance Restored, a free devotional from Men of Iron crafted to empower you to become the man God has called you to be. At Men of Iron, our mission is to help men know God, discover their purpose, and thrive in the Core 5: faith, family, friends, fitness, and finances. When you cultivate godly discipline in these areas, you unlock a life of strength, balance, and impact.

This devotional is your starting point—a simple resource designed to guide you through God’s Word as you build habits that honor Him. Finance Restored offers biblical insights and practical steps to help you align your finances with God’s plan. While we can’t cover every Scripture, this journey will equip you to live intentionally and better reflect the life that God has called you to.

WHO WE ARE: MEN OF IRON

Men of Iron exists to change a culture one man at a time, by leading you to know God and know your purpose. We believe that when you thrive in your Core 5, faith, family, friends, fitness, and finances—you become a man who knows God and lives out His purpose.

Through our flagship Strong27™ mentorship program, we pair you with a mentor just a few seasons ahead of you. This one-on-one guidance helps you set goals, stay accountable, and grow quickly in your Core 5. It’s the most effective way to climb the mountain of personal growth. Week 1, Day 1

Welcome to the very first day of Finance: Restored. At Men of Iron, we want to help you know God and know your purpose. We do this by helping you thrive in your Core5: faith, family, friends, fitness, and finances. We believe that when you begin to function well in each of these areas, you will be set up for the best possible scenario to become the man God created you to be.

Over the next several weeks, we want to help you understand what God says about your personal finances. You've probably noticed that there is no shortage of people willing to tell you how to handle your finances. In fact, the financial services industry brings in hundreds of billions of dollars every year. Isn't it ironic how much money is being made by the people advising you on how to spend yours?

While I understand that many of us need guidance when it comes to money, we also believe that heading straight to a financial advisor may not always be the best first step. That's why today, we are looking at Genesis Chapter 1. Clever, right? We are going to start our study on what God says about money with the very first verse of the very first chapter of the very first book of the Bible. The first recorded words from God actually provide insight into our financial perspective.

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. The earth was formless and empty, and darkness covered the deep waters. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters. Then God said, "Let there be light," and there was light.

Genesis 1:1-3

What does this have to do with money? A lot, actually. You'll notice that at the very beginning of time, there was nothing. Just God existing alone in a void. Then, as He speaks, something is created from nothing.

So what?

Well, that means everything around you was made possible by God. Everything. I get it—God didn't build your house, and He didn't manufacture your car, but He made all of it possible. Why would He do that? For some reason, even though He didn't need to, God wanted to create us. In Genesis 2, God creates humanity, and then He completes creation. God loves humanity, desires to be with humanity, and enjoys humanity. Furthermore, He created us and everything around us so we can enjoy it and, at the same time, honor Him.

God is good. Everything we have comes from Him. We have been created to honor Him, enjoy Him, and be grateful for the things He has blessed us with.

God has entrusted you with His resources. This truth is the foundation for honoring Him with your finances.
