How Do We Define It?

A deliberate preference to do right over wrong.

What Does It Look Like?

Matthew 5:16

1. Doing good acts, impacting others and reflecting God's light.
2. Doing good things not to be good, but because of God's goodness.

How Do We Do It?

We are filled with God's goodness to the point we are willing to do good to anyone and everyone.

Let's Unpack It

- How do the words "intentionality" and "consistency" develop our understanding of goodness?
- How does a proper view and trust of God's goodness lead us to decisions that reflect His character in our own daily decisions?
- What are some images of God that you carry which have negatively impacted an accurate view of Him? How has that influenced your view of yourself?
- What is the motivation behind a man doing something good?
